About this document

This document is a Product Disclosure Statement (“PDS”) and Policy Wording which respectively contains:

1. Important information which is to help You understand the insurance; and
2. The terms and conditions of the cover provided. It is up to You to choose the cover You need.

Other documents may comprise the PDS and We will tell You if this is the case in the relevant document.

You should carefully consider the information provided, having regard to Your personal circumstances to decide if it is right for You.

Product Disclosure Statement

This PDS was prepared by Hollard on 22 September 2021.

Who is this product for?

This product is designed for people who own and can legally drive a private vehicle registered in Australia. You can choose from two levels of cover:

- Comprehensive – for customers who want to insure their Vehicle against loss or damage caused by accident, collision, natural events, fire, theft, or malicious damage by others, and for liability for loss or damage to other people’s property caused by the Vehicle if the driver is at fault.
- Third Party Property Damage – for customers who only want to insure against liability for loss or damage to other people’s property caused by the Vehicle if the driver is at fault. This does not cover loss or damage to Your Vehicle. The target market for this level of cover is customers who do not want or cannot get Comprehensive cover. This level of cover is not likely to be suitable if Your car secures a loan or other finance.

Full details of the cover and applicable terms, definitions, exclusions and limitations are set out in this PDS.

You can view full details of Our Target Market Determination by visiting www.hollardinsurance.com.au

This information does not take Your personal circumstances into account. Even if You are in the target market and We offer the product to You, that does not mean that this product is appropriate for You in Your particular circumstances. No one knows Your situation better than You, so before You make any decisions about this product, You should read this PDS to decide if this product is right for You.

How to apply for this Policy

To apply for this Policy, please complete Our online application form with Your Steadfast Broker.

If We accept Your application, You will receive a Policy Schedule that sets out details of the cover You have chosen.

The cost of this Policy

The premium is the amount We charge You for this Policy. It includes the amount We have calculated for the risk as well as the taxes and government charges that are applicable. The premium will be shown on the Policy Schedule.

When calculating the premium We take a number of factors into account. These factors and the degree to which they affect the premium will depend on the information You give Us, and the covers You choose. The main factors that impact Your premium include:

- the type and amount of cover;
- the Vehicle and driver(s) to be insured; and
- the driver(s)'s previous insurance and claims history.

Some rating factors do not affect all components of the premium calculation.

Excess

The Excess is the amount You must contribute towards the cost of any claim You make. If Your claim is payable, We will deduct the Excess from the amount of the claim We will pay to You, or You will need to pay the Excess to a supplier, repairer, or to Us.

The Excess payable by You is shown in Your Policy Schedule.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Unless expressly stated otherwise, all dollar amounts described and/or payable in respect to Your Policy are inclusive of GST.

If You are (or required to be) registered for GST You must tell Us Your Australian Business Number and entitlement to an input tax credit which We will deduct from any claim payment(s) We make. Any fines or penalties arising from Your incorrect advice are payable by You.

This GST provision may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read it carefully. You can choose to seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and/or Your insurance.

Keep Your receipts

You should keep receipts, invoices or other evidence of ownership and value of Your Vehicle and any other property covered under the Policy because if You make a claim You will be asked to prove ownership and value in order for Us to pay the claim.

How to make a claim

Please contact Your Steadfast Broker to assist You in making a claim.

In an emergency outside normal business hours You may ring Our emergency service on 1300 020 287 for assistance. Further details of what You must do for Us to consider Your claim are provided in the 'Making a claim' section of Your Policy wording below.

- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander status;
- remote location; or
- financial distress.

More information about the extra care We can offer and how We support customers is available on Our website.

Your cooling off rights

Once cover has commenced You have a 21 day cooling off period from the start of the period of cover. Provided You have not submitted a claim under Your Policy, or an event has not occurred that could give rise to a claim under Your Policy, You have the right to cancel Your Policy and receive a full premium refund less any non-refundable government charges, taxes and levies that We have paid. The cooling off period ceases as soon as You make a claim under Your Policy.

To exercise this right, You must notify Your Steadfast Broker electronically or in writing. Your Steadfast Broker may deduct certain amounts from any refund that may be due for administration costs.

SIGNIFICANT FEATURES, RISKS AND BENEFITS

If You choose Comprehensive Cover, this will cover loss, destruction or damage to Your Vehicle. In addition, this also covers You for Your legal liability for property damage arising out of the use of Your Vehicle.

If You choose Third Party Property Damage cover only, this will only cover Your legal liability for property damage arising out of the use of Your Vehicle.

With each cover option, a range of benefits are included. These benefits are shown in the Policy Wording under each section and can be found under the heading “Other benefits We may pay”.

Exclusions

Under some circumstances, this Policy will not provide any insurance cover to You. For example, if You deliberately damage the Vehicle.

It is important that You are aware of these exclusions and so You should read them. These exclusions are shown under the heading(s) “When We will not pay Your Claim”.

In addition, there are things that You must do in order for You to be covered. For example, You must take all reasonable steps to recover lost or stolen property. These things are shown under the heading “Conditions of Cover” as well as other sections of the Policy Wording. There are also some conditions that must be present before We will meet any claim. These are also shown in the Policy Wording below.

You still need to read the Policy Wording, supplementary PDSs or any endorsements applicable to Your Policy and the Policy Schedule for a full description of the benefits, features, exclusions and conditions of the insurance Policy.

Sanctions

Our Policy wording also contains sanctions exclusion. Please review it carefully.

Financial Claims Scheme

We are authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (“Insurance Act”) to carry on general insurance business in Australia by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (“APRA”) and are subject to the prudential requirements of the Insurance Act. The Insurance Act contains prudential standards and practices designed to ensure that, under all reasonable circumstances, financial promises made by Us are met within a stable, efficient and competitive financial system.

The protection provided under the Federal Government’s Financial Claims Scheme (the “Scheme”) applies to the Policy. In the unlikely event that the Insurer is unable to meet its obligations under the Policy, persons entitled to make a claim under the insurance cover under the Policy may be entitled to payment under the Scheme (access to the Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria). Information about the Scheme can be obtained from <https://www.fcs.gov.au>.

Claims Payment Examples

The following claims payment examples are designed to illustrate how a claim payment might typically be calculated. These examples do not cover all scenarios or all benefits and do not form part of the Policy terms and conditions. They are a guide only. The amount payable under the Policy will depend on the facts applicable to the claim as well as the coverage, exclusions and Excesses set out in the Policy and the Policy Schedule.

Repair of Your Vehicle

Your Vehicle is comprehensively insured for Market Value with a basic Excess of $500, an undeclared Young drivers' Excess of $1,250 and an undeclared inexperienced drivers' Excess of $750. Your insured Vehicle is involved in an accident while being driven by an undeclared inexperienced driver with Your authority and the cost of repair is $7,500 inclusive of GST. The Market Value of Your Vehicle is $22,000. You are not registered for GST.

How much We will pay	Explanation
$6,250	We will pay the cost of repair of $7,500; less the basic Excess of $500 and less the undeclared inexperienced drivers' Excess of $750.

Total Loss of Your Vehicle

Your Vehicle is comprehensively insured for Market Value with a basic Excess of $500, an undeclared Young drivers' Excess of $1,250 and an undeclared inexperienced drivers' Excess of $750. Your insured Vehicle is involved in an accident and the driver is not an undeclared Young driver or inexperienced driver. The Market Value of the Vehicle is $22,000 and it was manufactured seven years ago. The cost of repair is $25,000 and the salvage value is $2,000. You are not registered for GST.

How much We will pay	Explanation
$21,500	We will pay the Market Value of $22,000 as the Vehicle is a Total Loss; less the basic Excess of $500.

Liability for damage to a third-party's property

Your Vehicle is insured for third-party property damage only, with a basic Excess of $500, an undeclared Young drivers' Excess of $1,250 and an undeclared inexperienced drivers' Excess of $750. Your insured Vehicle is involved in an accident with a third-party vehicle and You are responsible for the accident. You are not an undeclared Young driver or an inexperienced driver. The cost of repairing the third-party's vehicle is $2,000 and the third-party also incurred hire car charges of $800 while the damaged vehicle was being repaired.

How much We will pay	Explanation
$2,800	We will pay the cost of repair and the hire car charges incurred by the third-party totaling $2,800. You will pay to Us the basic Excess and We will then pay the third-party the total amount claimed. There is no cover for the damage to Your Vehicle as You have not taken out comprehensive cover.

SPARE PARTS, EXTRAS AND ACCESSORIES

If We are unable to repair the part We will use new, recycled or reconditioned parts that meet the requirements of Australian Design Rules ("ADR"). If such parts are not available or appropriate, parts from alternative distribution channels may be used.

We will not pay any amount greater than the last listed price in Australia (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) for the supply of any spare part, extra or accessory. In the event that any spare part, extra or accessory cannot be obtained reasonably within Australia, We will pay You the last listed price of the spare part, extra or accessory (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) rather than supply the spare part, extra or accessory.

POLICY WORDING

Our agreement with You

This Policy is a legal contract between You and Us. If We accept Your application for insurance We will provide You with the cover You have chosen as set out in this Policy and Your Policy Schedule for the Period of Insurance shown in Your Policy Schedule or any renewal of that period. In return You must pay Us the premium.

The limits applying to the cover selected by You, and the amount of any Excess that applies to Your Policy, are shown in Your Policy Schedule.

Paying Your premium

There are two ways You can pay Your premium:

- in one annual payment to Your Steadfast Broker according to their business practices; or
- if provided, in 12 monthly instalments by direct debit from Your credit card or from Your bank account which can be arranged by Your Steadfast Broker.

You must pay Your premium in the manner set out on Your Policy Schedule.

Paying Your annual premium

You must pay Your annual premium to Your Steadfast Broker.

We will cancel Your Policy if You don't pay Your premium or if Your payment is dishonoured.

If You make a claim before You've paid Your premium You must pay that premium to Us in full before We will settle Your claim.

Paying Your instalment premium

If We have provided this option to You and if You are paying Your premium for the first time by instalments, We will deduct instalments each month on the day of the month that You nominate and which is shown on Your Policy Schedule as Your payment date.

What happens if You don't pay an instalment

If Your first instalment is unpaid by the due date or if Your payment is dishonoured and that instalment has remained unpaid for one month or more then We may cancel Your Policy. If You make a claim then You must pay that premium to Us in full before We will settle Your claim. We will send You a notice giving You details of the action We intend to take and when any cancellation will become effective.

We will not pay a claim under this Policy if, at the time the claim occurred, any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for 14 days or more.

We are entitled to deduct from any amount We pay You under a claim any unpaid premium or instalment of premium.

If You renew Your Policy

If You are renewing Your Policy and You paid Your previous premiums by instalments, We will continue to deduct instalments for Your renewed Policy on the day of the month You previously nominated as Your payment date, unless You tell Us otherwise. We may also refuse to renew Your Policy.

Further details of Your instalments are shown on Your Policy Schedule.

If Your payment details change

If You are paying Your premium in instalments by direct debit from Your credit card or financial institution account, You must tell Us if those details change. You must do this no later than 7 days before Your next instalment is due.

Preventing Our right of recovery

If You have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate You for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy, We will not cover You under this Policy for that loss, damage or liability.

Other party's interests

You must tell Us of the interest of all parties (e.g. financiers, lessors or owners) who will be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if You have told Us about them and We have noted them on Your Policy Schedule.

Providing proof

So that Your claim can be assessed quickly You should keep the following:

- receipts or other confirmation of purchase and ownership;
- valuations; and
- photographs of insured items.

We may ask You for these if You make a claim. You must be able to prove to Us that You have suffered a loss that is covered by this Policy before We will pay Your claim for it.

Your claim may be refused

We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay for Your claim if You do not comply with the Policy conditions, if You do not comply with Your duty to answer honestly, or if You make a fraudulent claim.

Changing Your Policy

If You want to make a change to this Policy, the change becomes effective when:

- We agree to it; and
- We give You a new Policy Schedule detailing the change.

Cancelling Your Policy

How You may cancel this Policy

You may cancel this Policy by telling Us in writing that You want to cancel it.

Where 'You' involves more than one person, We will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all persons named as the insured on the Policy Schedule.

How We may cancel Your Policy

We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law or under this contract (including if You haven't paid Your premium) by informing You in writing.

We will give You notice in person or send it to Your address (including an electronic address) last known to Us.

Where You have paid Your premium in advance of the date of cancellation, We will refund to You the proportion of the premium for the remaining Period of Insurance (less any fees or expenses that may be charged by Us for administration costs and any non-refundable government charges, taxes and levies). Unless directed otherwise by all insureds, the refund will be made payable to the first named insured on Your Policy Schedule.

Notices

Any notice We give You will be in writing, and it will be effective:

- if it is delivered to You personally; or
- it is delivered to You at Your address (including an electronic address) which is last known to Us.

It is important for You to tell Us of any change of address as soon as possible.

If We send You an email, it is deemed to be received by You 24 hours after it is sent.

What happens after You make a claim

1. Excess

An Excess is the amount(s) shown in Your Policy Schedule which You must pay when You make a claim under Your Policy unless We state an Excess does not apply.

The payment of an Excess helps to keep the cost of Your premium down by reducing the number of small claims. There are different types of Excess which may apply to You or the driver of Your Vehicle at the time of the claim. The Excess types are shown in Your Policy Schedule. These include:

- Basic Excess – Between $200 - $10,000*

The Basic Excess is the first amount You must pay on each claim. The amount of the Basic Excess You choose will be shown in Your Policy Schedule.

In certain circumstances We may decide to impose an additional Excess as part of Us agreeing to provide cover and this will be listed in Your Policy Schedule. This will be in addition to Your Basic Excess and will apply every time the Basic Excess applies.

- Undeclared Young Driver Excess - $1,250*

If You make a claim for an accident when Your Vehicle was being driven by a driver under the age of 25, who was not listed in Your Policy Schedule, You must pay the Undeclared Young Driver Excess shown in Your Policy Schedule in addition to the Basic Excess.

- had been paid by You to repair, service or test Your Vehicle;

You will not have to pay an Undeclared Inexperienced Driver Excess if the driver was a learner driver accompanied by the holder of a full unrestricted Australian driver's licence.

*There are some claims for which an Excess does not apply. See "When You do not have to pay an Excess?" below.

When You do not have to pay an Excess

You will not have to pay any Excess if:

- the driver of Your Vehicle at the time of the accident did not contribute to the cause of the accident; or Your Vehicle was damaged by another party while parked, and for both circumstances the other person can be identified (You should always obtain the name and address of the person who caused the accident and the registration number of the other vehicle involved to help meet this requirement);
- the claimable loss is Recoverable by Us.

You will not have to pay an Undeclared Young Driver Excess or Undeclared Inexperienced Driver Excess (but You must pay Your Basic Excess) if You are claiming for any of the following:

We will not pay any amount greater than the last listed price in Australia (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) for the supply of any spare part, extra or accessory. In the event that any spare part, extra or accessory cannot be obtained reasonably within Australia, We will pay You the last listed price of the spare part, extra or accessory (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) rather than supply the spare part, extra or accessory.

If We are replacing Your Vehicle under the ‘Replacement of new Vehicle after a Total Loss’ benefit, this Policy will continue to cover Your new replacement Vehicle until the end of the Period of Insurance.

CHOICE OF REPAIRER

We can assist You in selecting a suitable repairer to repair the damage to Your Vehicle; however You also have the right to choose Your own repairer. In both instances We will work closely with the repairer to strive to achieve the best repair outcome for You however We may require a second quotation from a repairer chosen by Us. We will then choose (subject to any relevant Policy limits) to:

- authorise the repairs at Your repairer of choice;

Renewal procedure

Before Your Policy expires We will advise You whether We intend to offer renewal and if so on what terms. This document also applies for any offer of renewal We may make, unless We tell You otherwise. It is important that You check the terms of any renewal offer before renewing to satisfy Yourself that the details are correct. In particular, check the sum insured amounts and Excesses applicable and to ensure the levels of cover are appropriate for You. Please note that You need to comply with Your duty to answer honestly before each renewal.
